EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

☒ 1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.

☐ 2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 14 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.

☐ 3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the seven days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here.] _____

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

☐ 4. I am not required to receive a credit counseling briefing because of: [Check the applicable statement.] [Must be accompanied by a motion for determination by the court.]

☐ Incapacity. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as impaired by reason of mental illness or mental deficiency so as to be incapable of realizing and making rational decisions with respect to financial responsibilities.);

☐ Disability. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as physically impaired to the extent of being unable, after reasonable effort, to participate in a credit counseling briefing in person, by telephone, or through the Internet.);

☐ Active military duty in a military combat zone.

☐ 5. The United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator has determined that the credit counseling requirement of 11 U.S.C. § 109(h) does not apply in this district.

I certify under penalty of perjury that the information provided above is true and correct.

If the case is filed under chapter 12 or chapter 13, a married debtor must furnish information for both spouses whether or not a joint petition is filed, unless the spouses are separated and a joint petition is not filed. An individual debtor engaged in business as a sole proprietor, partner, family farmer, or self-employed professional, should provide the information requested on this statement concerning all such activities as well as the individual's personal affairs. To indicate payments, transfers and the like to minor children, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112; Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

Questions 1 - 18 are to be completed by all debtors. Debtors that are or have been in business, as defined below, also must complete Questions 19 - 25. If the answer to an applicable question is "None," mark the box labeled "None." If additional space is needed for the answer to any question, use and attach a separate sheet properly identified with the case name, case number (if known), and the number of the question.

Mrs. Patricia A. Lorenz
1508 Oak Knoll Lane
Virginia Beach, VA 23464

Dear Mrs. Lorenz:

We are pleased that you have employed Harry Jernigan CPA Attorney, P.C. (the "Firm") to represent you in your financial difficulties, which may involve a proceeding under the United States Bankruptcy Code.

Our Firm provides a fee agreement letter to clients to set forth the terms of representation. It has been our experience that clients appreciate having a letter of agreement regarding the terms of the engagement, including the fee arrangement. This letter confirms the agreement between you and our Firm for the services to be provided.

We normally bill on an hourly basis for the time involved on your file; however, in this case, you and the Firm have agreed that certain services related to your financial situation and potential bankruptcy case will be billed on at flat fee plus cost basis. We can offer a flat fee arrangement because the attorney and staff time required to perform certain of those services is predictable, provided information is provided to us timely and completely, and will be limited to the following services:

Initial analysis of your financial situation in respect to qualifications for filing a Bankruptcy Petition under the Bankruptcy Code and its various Chapters and, if so qualified we will give you advice as to which Bankruptcy Chapter(s) you should consider filing. This analysis is based primarily on the information you provide to us and therefore it is important for you to be as complete and accurate as practical in providing us pertinent information. In addition we will obtain and review information available to us from a credit reporting agency; and the Internal Revenue Service if we determine that an independent review of your tax liabilities is necessary; and the Pacer Federal Information System.

The Firm will then verify and conduct a comprehensive review of all information required for preparing and filing a Chapter 7 Petition in Bankruptcy, if appropriate, and related schedules and supporting documents and prepare the following for filing:

- Notice to Individual Consumer Debtors;
- Voluntary Petition;
- List of Creditors;
- Declaration of Divisional Venue;
- Schedules of Assets and Liabilities;

Mrs. Patricia A. Lorenz
RE: Chapter 7 Engagement

- Schedule of Property Claimed Exempt;
- Schedule of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases;
- Schedule of Co-Debtors;
- Schedules of Current Income and Current Expenditures;
- Statement of Financial Affairs;
- Chapter 7 Individual Debtor's Statement of Intention;
- Certificate of the attorney that Notice required under §342(b) was received and read by you;
- Certification of compliance with Debt Counseling Briefing requirements;
- Copies of all of your pay advices received by you from your employer(s) within 6 months prior to filing the Petition;
- Statement of monthly net income, itemized to show how the amount is calculated which includes a monthly schedule for each of the 6 months prior to filing;
- Statement disclosing any reasonably anticipated increases in income or expenditures over the next 12 months;
- Personal Federal Income Tax Return(s) for the last ended tax year;
- Homestead Deed for Real and Personal Property.

Our fixed fee for the above described Chapter 7 bankruptcy service is $1,600.00 and includes an in-office comprehensive review of the Petition and related documents with you by an attorney of our Firm at the time of your final review and signing.

The Chapter 7 fixed fee also includes filing of the Petition and related documents set forth above, submitting of documents to the Trustee appointed in your Bankruptcy case, and representation of you at the §341 hearing (your trustee's meeting).

The fixed fee for a Chapter 7 bankruptcy does not cover any adjourned §341 hearings, or follow-up requests for additional information that your Trustee may require at the §341 meeting and any creditors request for information which are consistent with the initial disclosure of information requirements of the Bankruptcy Code.

The United States Trustee's Office also conducts randomly selected bankruptcy cases for independent audit. If your case is selected for such audit the fixed fee will not cover the firm's services during representation of that audit. All additional time required to represent you or contest the findings or other results of the audit is not covered by the fixed fee.

The fixed fee for your Chapter 7 bankruptcy also does not cover amendments which are required because of information we receive which is not consistent with information you have provided, adversary proceedings, responses to creditor motions, including but not limited to motions for relief from the automatic stay, reaffirmation agreements and attendance at the hearing on reaffirmation agreements, and objections to discharge. It does not cover responding to trustees motions to dismiss or convert a bankruptcy case to a different chapter

In the event the information you provide to us causes us to advise you to file a Chapter 13 or Chapter 11, and you decide to proceed under one of those chapters, a new engagement letter will be necessary and additional fees will apply.

All services provided in addition to those included under the fixed fee arrangement will be billed on the basis of time required to perform the service at the Firm's normal hourly rates for the Firm's personnel in effect at the time the services are performed. Copies of our Billing Policy and our current Hourly Rate Fee Schedule are attached.

Except as may be otherwise specified above, the fixed fee for a Chapter 7 must be paid in advance prior to the filing of your bankruptcy petition. In the event our engagement is terminated during the process of performing services, the Firm's fees earned for the services performed will be billed at the Firm's normal hourly rate applicable at the time, but not in an amount higher than the fees specified above, including the fixed fee and supplemental service fee provisions.

You will also be responsible for out-of-pocket expenses incurred in your case, such as for court costs, photocopying, postage, and local transportation. The Attorney Rules of Ethics does not allow attorneys to advance costs and expenses for their clients. Therefore, prior to filing your Petition or any other court documents we must have fully funded fees and cost advances as follows:

• Chapter 7 Attorney Fee	$1,600.00
• Chapter 7 Filing Fee	$ 306.00
• Chapter 7 Homestead Deed Fee	$ 23.00
• Credit Report Fee(s)	$ 35.00
• Other Costs	$ 36.00

TOTAL	$2,000.00
--------------	--------------------------

For fees or costs incurred outside the fixed fee arrangement under this engagement, invoices shall be rendered with net ten (10) days payment terms. Any invoices not paid within thirty (30) days of the invoice date will accrue interest at the rate of 18% per annum, retroactive to the invoice date. In the event collection activities are required for any balance due, jurisdiction and venue shall be in the City of Virginia Beach. You and the firm agree that twenty five percent of the past due balance will be added to the amount owed to compensate us for attorney time spent to collect the delinquent amount. It is also agreed that the actual expenses for court costs and related collection costs, such as process server fees, fee to file a warrant in debt, etc. will be added to the amount due. There will be a $55.00 fee charged on all returned checks.

Individuals must obtain a credit briefing prior to filing a petition in bankruptcy from an approved Credit Counselor. Fees for that briefing range approximately from $35.00 to $60.00 for each individual and are not included within the Firm's fees and cost advance requirements set forth in this agreement.

The Firm assumes no responsibilities for this matter and this engagement agreement does not become effective until you execute and return this agreement and pay a deposit of $2,000.00. We have made no warranties or other assurances as to the results to be achieved under this agreement, and all expressions made by us relative thereto are matters of our opinion or are objectives to be pursued. It is acknowledged that if more than one party executes this engagement letter, as or on behalf of a client, each such party is jointly and severally liable for all fees and costs incurred. All parties hereto expressly waive any conflict that now or may later exist related to this joint representation. In addition, any required time expended on client's behalf or as a result of being required by judicial or governmental process to expend time related to this or any prior engagement, even if the engagement has ended, will also be billable at Attorney's normal rates at that time.

In the event that you choose to terminate our services prior to the completion of your bankruptcy, you may do so by delivering written notice to the above address. We also have the right at any time to terminate the engagement and will do so if you fail to provide us with the information and documentation that we require in order to completely, timely and ethically prepare a bankruptcy petition for you or your organization. If either you or we terminate the engagement, you will receive a refund of the monies remaining in your account after offset for fees billed at Attorneys normal hourly rates and costs incurred under this Agreement.

Thank you for the confidence you have placed in this firm. If the above terms are agreeable to you, please sign this letter.

Sincerely yours,
HARRY JERNIGAN CPA ATTORNEY, P.C.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA

NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $46 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $306)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $46 administrative fee: Total fee $281)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1000 filing fee, $46 administrative fee: Total fee $1046)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $46 administrative fee: Total fee $246)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.
